FORM INSTRUCTIONS FOR STUDENTS, FAMILIES & EDUCATORS

STEP 1 – Print the form or download the form on your computer.

- STEP 2 Complete the form as follows:
 - a. Name of the college or university: The student completes this part. The student writes the name of the college or university. Students can submit to a maximum of four universities. (One form for each university they are applying to).
 - b. Student: The student completes this part. The student can sign by using the "Fill & Sign" tool on the PDF or simply type up the initials.
 - c. Authorized official: The authorized official completes this part. A school counselor, postsecondary support personnel, or principal at the student's school OR an official from a community-based organization completes the Authorized Official section and verifies the student's economic eligibility. Note: CEEB# or PROGRAM# field can be found on the College Board website: https://collegereadiness.collegeboard.org/k-12-school-code-search. If not found, this field can remain blank.
 - d. Economic Need: The student completes this part, and the authorized official verifies it. Student should check at least one indicator. Additional documents may be added to this form.
 - a. If a student is enrolled in a federal, state or local program otherwise listed, check the "Other Request" box in the Economic Need section and specify which program the student is enrolled in.
 - b. If you have applied for FAFSA, provide a copy of your most recent Student Aid Report (SAR) from the US Department of Education. Your Student Aid Report (SAR) is a paper or electronic document that gives you some basic information about your eligibility for federal student aid as well as listing your answers to the questions on your FAFSA. If you cannot locate your SAR, you can retrieve one from the US Department of Education's Office of Federal Student Aid (FSA). Your SAR can be downloaded at (https://fafsa.ed.gov/)
 - c. International students should check the "Other Request" box in the Economic Need section and explain their financial barrier(s) to paying the application fee on the lines provided.

STEP 3 – Save the form. The completed form must be sent by the student directly to the institution's office of admission. The student should contact the office of admission to determine the school's accepted mode of delivery (e.g., mail, email, fax). The student should follow up with the office of admission 2-4 weeks post submission to check on the approval status.
